01 Introduction

WHAT IS RECONSA

Regional Conference on Student Activism (RECONSA) is a conference attended by young leaders, referred to as Delegates to share perspective by showcasing ideas and past activism projects with a parallel goal to achieve sustainable volunteerism. It is also a platform where passionate youth gather in one place with a similar aim, that is to equip essential skills, facilitate networking within different cultures and pursue joint effort opportunities.

"In the parallel session that discussed several predetermined themes, one of them was socio-economic, which illustrates how we, as social beings, must care for others."

-Arif Ikhsan, Indonesia

OBJECTIVES OF EVENT

The conference was designed to achieve the following objectives:

RAISE

To raise awareness among youth about the importance of sustainable volunteerism by exposing them to impactful community initiatives

IMPROVE

To improve youth perspectives by actively showcasing their projects and gaining constructive feedback from experts

EQUIP

To equip young leaders with the essential skills needed to execute impactful sustainable activism projects

FACILITATE

To facilitate student leaders to broaden their network with like-minded peers and NGOs, fostering potential collaborations and securing grants

EXPOSE

To expose international students with meaningful cultural experience to the diversity of Malaysian culture
